28 YEARS OF PRESIDENCY

“We haven't had the funds to do everything I would have liked to have done, but we are a valid, viable college which has made great strides in providing a first class higher education. We have every reason to be proud of our past, and with the continued support of our friends we shall be equally, if not more, proud of a future where we intend to serve a society that needs excellent small colleges like Saint Joseph's College.”
-Fr. Charles Banet, C.P.P.S.

Some people never even hear of Aquinas Hall. Some do, but never realize that it is a residence hall. That suits the residents of this old creaky building just fine.

Aquinas Hall residents are full of diverse personalities. Though they value the quietness of a 21 year-and-over dorm, they do so because their behavior speaks for itself.

Aquinas is home to those who value their education and are responsible to live as adults. - Emmet Morrison, 1992-93 Dorm Governor

Bennett Hall

The Men of Bennett this year have shown great school spirit and have entered a lot of contests. Bennett residents Sean Melko, Jim Matlon, Rick Webber, and Tim Jurgens won the SUB's Lip Sync Contest. Bennett residents also cheered at the Dorm War competition in nothing but their boxers, which not only displayed courage, but also intense school spirit. Leaders for this competition included Greg Blake and the infamous Flounder.

The M.O.B. also have a lot of fun with their annual Pig Roast. Parents, Faculty Members, and Friends all showed up to keep with the tradition. To all who survived the annual Pig Roast, the Men Of Bennett salute you! The M.O.B. were also very active in helping out the college community by participating in the Little 500. Without residents of Bennett Hall such as Juan Garza and Sean Melko, the annual events of Little 500 would never have taken place. Also, another resident of the hall, Rick Webber, raced for the third consecutive year.

The M.O.B. pride themselves on great tradition and strive to help out the Saint Joseph's College community in any way that would best benefit everyone. The Bennett Community is unique from every other dorm in that they all get along, everyone is everyone else's friend. - Jim Matlon, 1992-93 Dorm Governor

Halas Hall

The women of Halas were very busy this year. If there is a dorm that promotes Puma pride, it is Halas Hall! Halas won the much coveted Dorm War Award for having the most spirit and enthusiasm during the basketball season. All of the residents showed their Puma Pride by dressing in red and cheering during both the women's and men's basketball games. Halas took part in many events on Saint Joseph's campus. The annual Halas/Justin Christmas dance was a success. The "Winter Masquerade" took much preparation in order to be a popular dance. One 4-year Halas resident, Sloan Haughey declared it to be, "the most wonderful night of my life."

During Little 500 weekend Halas participated in a dorm decorating contest. All residents took part in hanging signs and banners outside of the dorm to promote the famous race that has become a very popular tradition at Saint Joe's. What Halas is really about is good times, good friends and good traditions. To live in Halas is a challenge in itself. Although we do not have the air conditioning that Justin has, we believe that it builds character. The luxuries of Halas are few and far between, but it is truly the women of Halas that make this dorm the best place to live on campus.

To all of the seniors in Halas, thank you for the memories that we will all cherish for the rest of our lives. To all of the underclassmen, keep the traditions alive and pass them on to the other lucky women that have the opportunity to live in a dorm rich with tradition and pride. - Tia Glass, 1992-93 Dorm Governor

Justin Hall East

This past school year the Ladies of Justin have been very busy. During the second weekend of October, the parents of Justin residents travelled to Saint Joe's for Parent's Weekend. A brunch was hosted for them right in our second floor lounge. Immediately following this event, the preparations for the annual Justin/Halas Christmas dance began. This year's dance, "Winter Masquerade," was attended by many on campus and proved to be quite a success. Second semester began with a dorm pizza party to break up the "winter blahs." Then, the anticipation of Little 500 activities took over immediately following Spring Break. Justin held a campus cookout, complete with disc jockey, on the Friday of Little 500 weekend. Soon after Little 500 weekend, residents contributed their part to the "All Campus Clean-Up." Every year brings new and exciting events to Justin Hall. - DeAnn Kueper, 1992-93 Dorm Governor

Merlini Hall

Merlini is conveniently located on the corner of Father Kenkle Drive and the main drag (across for the Science Building). Housing a diverse group of fellows, Merlini provides the Saint Joseph's College community with a rich, enthusiastic and intellectual contribution. As one of the most persecuted dorms, the Men Of Merlini are the focus of the annual "Kill Everyone in Merlini Snow Ball Fight." Another painful yearly event is the snow filled extravaganza called "MERLINI BOWL." Little 500 is a major draw for many Men Of Merlini. Several drivers, pit crews, and partiers flock to the trackside for a roaring day of blood pumping, steel twisting, motor head excitement. For the second consecutive year, two Men of Merlini have finished 2nd and 3rd in the Little 500: Jason Ostrowski and Ed Balas.

Traditionally, Merlini is the intellectual crowd. For the past several years, the Men Of Merlini have heated the G.P.A. thermometer to a blood red level. There is no doubt, on the other hand, that we like to have fun. Frisbee, softball, pool, heavy metal, WPUM radio and road trips account for some favorite activities. In any case, Merlini is a no holds barred, must see, fun factory that every person stepping foot on campus should be a part of for at least one weekend...it can change your life.

Come inside, the show is about to begin... - Jason Ostrowski, 1993-94 Dorm Governor

Noll Hall

It was another interesting year within the hallowed halls of Noll. First of all, the dorm continued the competitive nature with residents representing all the major varsity sports on campus: basketball, football, soccer, golf, tennis, track, cross country, and baseball. In addition, Noll boasts the champions of the prestigious IM Softball league: The Noll Stoned Sheep. Other IM participants from Noll played softball, football, basketball, hockey, and volleyball for the traditional Stoned Ponies. Academically speaking, the residents of Noll earned GPA's ranging from .8 to 4.0. The Dorm Funds provided by the Student Association were spent on a cornucopia of non-liquid assets, including "the grill," a coffee maker for Dick, and enough burgers and weiners to feed a small Marxist regime. Also, individuals living in Noll spent most of their parent's money on silver cylinders that adorn most rooms at one time or another. Finally, Noll deserves a pat on the back for a successful golf party where everyone who came left with a smile on their face. Good luck Dick, we'll miss you! - Bob Sheridan, 1992-93 Dorm Governor

Seifert Hall

Seifert Hall is a mixing pot of students. The men of Seifert are of many different races, creeds, and athletic abilities. Even though much of the population in the dorm play football, you can find many soccer, baseball, tennis and track and field participants, also. The perennial physical toughness of the dorm and the attitudes present in the minds of the residents gives Seifert the unprecedented name "Seifert Rats." This is a name given by their colleagues and is looked upon by the men of Seifert as one to uphold.

Traditionally, we have great success in campus events. You can almost always count on a Seifert team winning the Intramural basketball, softball, football, and even this year, hockey leagues. The athleticism displayed is great. The 29th Annual Little 500 was won by a resident of Seifert.

However, Seifert is not all sports. There are many students who live as just an everyday student. Some students are into other things like the Student Union Board (SUB) or the Minority Student Union (MSU). One can also see them in numerous other groups on campus. On the whole, Seifert is seen as one big interwoven family that looks out after each other. We stick together like a pack of rats. That is why we are proudly dubbed the "Seifert Rats." - Jason Miskus, 1993-94 Dorm Governor
